WHAT DO HARVARD COLLEGE STUDENTS DO DURING THEIR THREE SUMMERS?

- Internships: 77% of Harvard College students had at least one internship.
- Research: 38% of Harvard College students had at least one research experience.
- Study for Credit: 28% of Harvard College students studied for credit at least one summer.

WHERE DO HARVARD COLLEGE STUDENTS SPEND THEIR THREE SUMMERS?

- International Experience: 56% of Harvard College students spent at least one summer with their primary activity in an international location.

WHAT TYPE OF ORGANIZATIONS DO HARVARD COLLEGE STUDENTS INTERN FOR DURING THEIR THREE SUMMERS?

- For-Profits: 56% of internships were at for-profit companies.
- Not-for-Profits: 33% of internships were at not-for-profit organizations.
- Government: 11% of internships were at government organizations.

WHICH SUMMER EXPERIENCES ARE FUNDED BY HARVARD?

- Research: 64% funded by research.
- Study for Credit: 54% funded by study for credit.
- Government Internships: 52% funded by government internships.
- Nonprofit Internships: 44% funded by nonprofit internships.
- Travel: 38% funded by travel.
- For-Profit Internships: 5% funded by for-profit internships.

Alternatively, students may have been funded by a different source or paid by an employer.